Music and Drama

Coming Attractions for Wichita Amusement Lovers.

At the Crawford.

Hoyt's "A Trip to China Town" was played at the Crawford last night to a full house. The weather was rather unfavorable, but Hoyt's plays never fail to bring out a crowd. Many who attended were disappointed from the fact that the play has been almost completely changed since it was last given in Wichita, but many thought the change was an improvement and nearly every one was well pleased with the performance. The plot, if there is one, is hard to find, but the average person was so much taken with the comical features of the play that he forgot to look for the plot. The actors carried their parts well and while it was not just what many expected it was a good show.

CALIFORNIA.

The re have been many successes staged at the Crawford theater in the past, but it is safe to say that none of them contain more real merit than "California." Few plays before the public today have met with such praise and success in years as "California." It has come rapidly to the front on its own merits and is not pronounced one of the foremost of all melodramatic attractions. The story of the play is a strong one, yet simply and directly told. There are no impossible situations, no trick scenery, and no melodramatic features which cause an intelligent audience to become dissatisfied. "California" although a splendid success as a drama, is not alone the attraction. Miss Rae Bronson as "Dolores," the betrayed Spanish girl, looks and plays the part to perfection. Her gown is admired by all lovers of exquisite models of the tailors art. She does not depend on even these, for "Dolores" was played with great feeling and intensity and proved herself to be an actor of rare abilities. Her rendition of this beautiful character can truly be said to be an absolute triumph.

At the Crawford tonight, Saturday matinee and Saturday night.

At the Toler.

SATURDAY MATINEE
Little Shore Acres, the youngest comedian in the world, assisted by Master Artie St. Clair, will entertain the children and ladies at the Toler in a unique performance presenting comic plays, character imitations, etc. The charges will be 10c for children and 25c for adults.

At Garfield hall tonight Palmer & Starnes' famous Pikaninny Minstrels, all up-to-date, minstrelsy. See the grand first act scene—"A Night in Old Vienna," headed by Bethel Gibson and a strong cast of vocal artists. Ten big novelty acts; see the parade at 3 o'clock. This is a home talent show. Come out and help the home boys. We guarantee this show. Under the management of David Starnes.

JESSIE ELDREDGE SOUTHWICK.

Jessie Eldridge Southwick will appear in a recital next Monday evening in Plymouth Congregational church under the auspices of Sedgewick County Fairmount college. Mrs. Southwick is connected with the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, in a very important way. Her husband has recently purchased the college and Mrs. Southwick has been and is his chief adviser on all matters pertaining to the welfare of the institution.

Wichita people will remember that it was from this college of oratory that Mrs. Mabel Millison Arnett graduated and they will be interested to know that Mrs. Southwick was one of her most esteemed instructors while in Boston.
Of Mrs. Southwick the Providence (R. I.) Journal says: "None of the readers heard here has displayed such charm of voice and such elegance of diction. She is quite in a class by herself."
Franklin (N. H.) Transcript: "Nothing but words of praise."
